

Dear Kena's Krew Foundation Supporter,

Today, on World Cancer Day, we're launching a special drive to assemble comfort care bags for local chemotherapy patients – and we need your help.

We're collecting donated items that bring practical comfort and encouragement during treatment. Please consider donating any of the following (new and unopened items only):

Suggested items for chemo care bags

- Cozy socks (non-slip, warm)
- Soft blankets or lap throws (small)
- Lip balm / petroleum jelly (unscented)
- Sugar-free mints, hard candies, or ginger candies (for nausea)
- Hydration: bottled water, electrolyte packets, herbal teas (ginger, peppermint)
- Travel mugs or insulated water bottles
- Gentle, fragrance-free hand lotion and unscented wipes
- Soft hats, beanies, or headscarves
- Disposable warm/cool packs
- Gentle toothbrushes and alcohol-free mouthwash
- Hand sanitizer (travel size)
- Tissues (pocket packs)
- Phone chargers or portable power banks (small)
- Fuzzy slippers or slipper socks (non-slip)
- Cozy eye masks and earplugs
- Puzzle books, adult coloring books, crayons/colored pencils, or small journals & pens
- Comfort snacks (protein bars, crackers – low-sugar options)
- Inspirational notes /cards or small devotional booklets
- Gas/ride-share gift cards, grocery or coffee gift cards (any denomination)
- Reusable tote bags or zipper pouches to hold items
